++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Largely dry with clear spells overnight and tomorrow.

This Evening and Tonight:
Outbreaks of rain clearing southwards this evening to leave a dry night with clear spells and light winds, which will allow some patchy frost and fog to form later. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Tuesday:
A dry but chilly start to Tuesday. Any fog clearing to sunny spells, but cloud and wind increasing through the afternoon, with patchy rain spreading into the west overnight. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Remaining rather cloudy and breezy on Wednesday, with some patchy rain, most likely across the Pennines. Drier and less windy Thursday and Friday, but mostly cloudy. Mild for December.
